Another surplus that is worrying the government is that of prisoners.Who remembers when reformers used to rave about the coca craze?Some during girls are now wearing shorts running about to the ground.An expert examination of furniture dispute that the Easter rabbit was really a seal.The British probably wish Gandy and his salt-makers would meet the fate of the Tuts' wife.Speaking of names again, Josephine Lawless, the Bantams, was arrested for selling liquor in her restaurant.The new tariff bill passes skelton on the first list. Now we may have to wait for reforming our families.Mr. Brisbane suggests that a man should retire at the age of 90.
We have about concluded to do that very thing.Four men sought in a truck kidnap in Chicago have been found. And, strange as it may seem, they were found empty.Possibly we can take care of the dead end of the veterans of the government commissions ever get pension we're asking.The United States will proceed to comply with the naval "reduction" of 1929 by getting seven new cruisers carrying 8-inch guns.Uncle Sam got out easy after all. It will cost him less than a million dollars to build enough warships to keep the insurance men happy with the insurance men.It is proposed to permit Americans who marry foreigners to retain their citizenship. But it is thought that the law will be used to retain their money."Can a Christian be a Communist?" says, "Yes, but, in Russia a Communist is not a Christian." And if he tries to work at being a Christian.We doubt that Jamaica ginger will ever become the national herbaceous. Vendors are hardly affraid to give up their chair with each chair with each bottle.An exchange denies the story about a newspaper man picked up a bullet in the head and died by Mr. Coolidge. It says the former President is not that wasteful.Some complain because Congress doesn't begin to legislate until 1931. But in some cases a delay of about 13 years would be better for the rest of us.Arrested for stealing a piano, a Nebraska man confessed that he had taken it "in a moment of weakness." If he had been jailed, he said, he would have had to pay for it.

FARM BOARD'S ADVICE

During the last few weeks the Federal Farm Board has made repeated appeals to farmers to reduce their acreage of crops of which there is a surplus, especially wheat and cotton.The fact that this advice has been constantly given direct to the farmers is evidence that Chairman Leggett has followed the advice of the nation of trying to overcome the surplus of supply and demand by artificial means.It is also true that the farmers of the nation will be automatically bring relief or protection to the American farmer. The two ways: He must curtail crops of which there is a world surplus, and he must organize for cooper-RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED AT
